

South Gloucestershire Aphasia Choir

Aphasia Choir

You can join a choir for people with aphasia

The words to songs will be easier to read

Music Therapy Students will run the choir

The choir is to help you to feel good and to meet other people

Friends and family can come too

When and Where?

The choir is every Tuesday morning

The choir starts at 10.30 and finishes at 11.30

The choir is usually at the Brockridge Centre, Frampton Cotterell but we currently meet on Zoom

There will be a break for tea and coffee

There is disabled parking and disabled toilets

Join the Choir

You need to fill in a form

The choir is free

Bring some money for tea and coffee

Tell Emma that you are coming

Get More Information

Emma can give you more information

sglosaphasiachoir@gmail.com

07740945758

The Choir Team

Emma

Speech and Language Therapist

Becky

Music Therapy student

Sharon

Music Therapy student